

Dahlia Collection

Older

- 'Miss Rose Fletcher' - a soft, sweet, pink heirloom (1948) with 3.5" semi cactus form blooms. 3.5-4' plants.

- 'Wisconsin Red' - The standout in this latest catalog is a new and rare dahlia offering, "Wisconsin Red." Old House Gardens notes "with dark stems and ruby-red flowers, this family heirloom is SO easy to grow and store that it's been a pass-long plant in Wisconsin since the early 1900s."

2020

- 'Park Princess' Park Princess' – cactus type; the tightly rolled petals vary in color from pale pink to rich, vibrant pink, depending on the temperature and moisture; prolific re-bloomer; excellent cut flower; one of the best! 2'-3'.

My earliest bloomer in 2021 after starting it inside in late April (blooms started 6/29) and have consistently been blooming throughout season.

- Bush 'Cancun' -

- 'Melody Dora' - Dahlia Melody Dora has pink and salmon edges fading inward to soft yellow centers; 4" flowers, 2-3 feet tall.

2021 – started late April, bloomed mid-July and continued blooms.

- 'Kelvin Floodlight' - giant 'dinner plate' 6"-8" flowers of rich sunshine yellow will brighten any garden; 2'-3'.

2021 – started in April, as of 7/30 no blooms yet – but budding.

2021 (These were all started in the garden in raised bed on 5/18 except Karma Gold – one of those went into raised bed, the other in the ground. Buds started 7/25 in raised bed.)

- 'Vancouver' - a lovely formed reddish burgundy flower with tips of white; variable coloration as the flowers mature; another terrific cut flower with strong stems; 2'-3'

- 'Karma Lagoon' - beautifully formed with even, perfectly balanced layers of petaloids make this flower appealing to the masses for the pastel garden or for arrangements; 2'-3'.

- 'Melody Swing' - a compact plant that gives numerous 4"-6" flowers from mid summer until frost; 12"-18"

- 'Karma Gold' (2) - warm, golden yellow, 6" flowers with dark stems and green foliage; excellent cut flower with strong stems; 2'-3'.

- 'Karma Prospero' - beautifully formed flowers with soft lilac pink petals; dark stems and dark green foliage; terrific cut flower; very popular in our display gardens; 3'-4'
